Author / Submission Instructions

I. General Information

The Indiana Undergraduate Journal of Cognitive Science invites submissions of original writing by undergraduate students. Submissions may come from any area within Cognitive Science including, but not limited to: artificial intelligence, anthropology, biology, computer science, linguistics, philosophy, psychology and neuroscience.

II. Submission / Paper Format

Articles are accepted on a continuous basis and will be considered for publication upon submission. Articles should be sent directly to the editorial board as an attachment in Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF format. Submissions should be edited for grammar and style before submission. There is no limit on article length. Submissions should include a Title Page that includes the following information: Article Title, Author Name, Major, University, and E-Mail Address. This information will not be published and is for contact purposes only.

Authors should submit their work via E-mail to the Indiana Undergraduate Journal of Cognitive Science Editorial Board at iacs@indiana.edu. Once your submission is received, a confirmation E-mail will be sent by the Editorial Board. All submissions will be considered equally and no preference will be given to any particular discipline within cognitive science.

III. Review / Acceptance Process

After submission, the Editorial Board and a panel of reviewers will review all articles and will decide which papers will be published in the current edition of the journal. Authors will be notified by E-mail if their paper is accepted for publication. Authors will also be notified by E-mail if their paper is not selected for publication. After acceptance, authors are required to submit their paper in Microsoft Word format to allow the Editorial Board to make formatting and grammatical edits. Once these changes have been made, the Editorial Board will contact the authors to obtain final approval of the above changes and to obtain written publication permission.

IV. Disclaimer and More Information
